(B) substantial evidence is available in Indiana concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

(3) All courts having jurisdiction under subdivision (1) or (2) have declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that an Indiana court is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child under section 8 or 9 of this chapter.

(4) No court of any other state would have jurisdiction under the criteria specified in subdivision (1), (2), or (3).

(b) The jurisdictional requirements described in this section provide the exclusive jurisdictional basis for making a child custody determination by an Indiana court.

(c) Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction over, a party or a child is not necessary or sufficient to make a child custody determination.

Sec. 2. (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 4 of this chapter, an Indiana court that has made a child custody determination consistent with section 1 or 3 of this chapter has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction over the determination until:

(1) an Indiana court determines that:

(A) neither:

(i) the child;

(ii) the child's parents; nor

(iii) any person acting as a parent;

has a significant connection with Indiana; and

(B) substantial evidence is no longer available in Indiana concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships; or

(2) an Indiana court or a court of another state determines that:

(A) the child;

(B) the child's parents; and

(C) any person acting as a parent;

do not presently reside in Indiana.

(b) An Indiana court that:

(1) has made a child custody determination; and

(2) does not have exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this section;

may modify the determination only if the Indiana court has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under section 1 of this chapter.

Sec. 3. Except as provided in section 4 of this chapter, an Indiana court may not modify a child custody determination made by a court of another state unless an Indiana court has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under section 1(a)(1) or 1(a)(2) of this chapter and:

(1) the court of the other state determines that:

(A) it no longer has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under section 2 of this chapter; or

(B) an Indiana court would be a more convenient forum under section 8 of this chapter; or

(2) an Indiana court or a court of the other state determines that:

(A) the child;

(B) the child's parents; and

(C) any person acting as a parent;

do not presently reside in the other state.

Sec. 4. (a) An Indiana court has temporary emergency jurisdiction if the child is present in Indiana and:

(1) the child has been abandoned; or

(2) it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child because:

(A) the child;

(B) the child's sibling; or

(C) the child's parent;

is subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse.

(b) If:

(1) there is no previous child custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under this article; and

(2) a child custody proceeding has not been commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter;

a child custody determination made under this section remains in effect until an order is obtained from a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter.

(c) If a child custody proceeding has not been or is not commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter, a child custody determination made under this section becomes a final determination, and, if it so provides, Indiana becomes the home state of the child.

(d) If:

(1) there is a previous child custody determination that is

o
p
y

entitled to be enforced under this article; or

(2) a child custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter;

an order issued by an Indiana court under this section must specify in the order a period that the court considers adequate to allow the person seeking an order to obtain an order from the state having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter.

(e) The order issued in Indiana remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other state within the period specified or the period expires.

(f) An Indiana court that has been asked to make a child custody determination under this section, on being informed that:

(1) a child custody proceeding has been commenced in; or

(2) a child custody determination has been made by;

a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter, shall immediately communicate with the other court.

(g) An Indiana court that is exercising jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter, on being informed that:

(1) a child custody proceeding has been commenced in; or

(2) a child custody determination has been made by;

a court of another state under a statute similar to this section, shall immediately communicate with the court of the other state to resolve the emergency, protect the safety of the parties and the child, and determine a period for the duration of the temporary order.

Sec. 5. (a) Before a child custody determination is made under this article, notice and an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the standards of IC 31-21-3-3 must be given to the following persons:

(1) Persons entitled to notice under Indiana law as in child custody proceedings between residents of Indiana.

(2) A parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated.

(3) Any person having physical custody of the child.

(b) This article does not govern the enforceability of a child custody determination made without notice or an opportunity to be heard.

(c) The obligation to join a party and the right to intervene as a party in a child custody proceeding under this article are governed by Indiana law in the same manner as in child custody proceedings between Indiana residents.

 40 that:

41 (1) the Indiana court is an inconvenient forum under the

(2) a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.
The issue of inconvenient forum may be raised on motion of a party, the court's own motion, or request of another court.

(b) Before determining whether an Indiana court is an inconvenient forum, the Indiana court shall consider whether it is appropriate for a court of another state to exercise jurisdiction. For this purpose, the Indiana court shall allow the parties to submit information and shall consider the relevant factors, including the following:

(1) Whether domestic violence has occurred and is likely to continue in the future and which state is best able to protect the parties and the child.

(2) The length of time the child has resided outside Indiana.

(3) The distance between the Indiana court and the court in the state that would assume jurisdiction.

(4) The relative financial circumstances of the parties.

(5) An agreement of the parties as to which state should assume jurisdiction.

(6) The nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the pending litigation, including the child's testimony.

(7) The ability of the court of each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present the evidence.

(8) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the pending litigation.

(c) If an Indiana court determines that it is an inconvenient forum and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum, the Indiana court:

(1) shall stay the proceedings on condition that a child custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another designated state; and

(2) may impose any other condition the Indiana court considers just and proper.

(d) An Indiana court may decline to exercise its jurisdiction under this article if a child custody determination is incidental to an action for dissolution of marriage or another proceeding while still retaining jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage or other proceeding.

Sec. 9. (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 4 of this chapter or by any other Indiana law, if an Indiana court has jurisdiction under this article because a person seeking to invoke its jurisdiction has engaged in unjustifiable conduct, the court shall

p
y

decline to exercise its jurisdiction unless:

(1) the child's parents and any person acting as a parent have acquiesced in the exercise of jurisdiction;

(2) a court of the state otherwise having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter determines that Indiana is a more appropriate forum under section 8 of this chapter; or

(3) no court of any other state would have jurisdiction under the criteria specified in sections 1 through 3 of this chapter.

(b) If an Indiana court declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection (a), the Indiana court may fashion an appropriate remedy to:

(1) ensure the safety of the child; and

(2) prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct;

including staying the proceeding until a child custody proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction under sections 1 through 3 of this chapter.

(c) If a court dismisses a petition or stays a proceeding because it declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection (a), the court shall assess against the party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction necessary and reasonable expenses including:

(1) costs;

(2) communication expenses;

(3) attorney's fees;

(4) investigative fees;

(5) expenses for witnesses;

(6) travel expenses; and

(7) child care during the course of the proceedings;

unless the party from whom fees are sought establishes that the assessment would be clearly inappropriate. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against the state unless authorized by law other than this article.

Sec. 10. (a) Subject to local law providing for the confidentiality of procedures, addresses, and other identifying information in a child custody proceeding, each party, in its first pleading or in an attached affidavit, shall provide information, under oath, regarding:

(1) the child's present address or whereabouts and the places where the child has lived during the immediately preceding five (5) years; and

(2) the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period.

p
y

(b) The pleading or affidavit must state the following:

(1) Whether the party has participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other proceeding concerning the custody of or visitation with the child and, if so, identify:

(A) the court;

(B) the case number; and

(C) the date of the child custody determination, if any.

(2) Whether the party knows of a proceeding that may affect the current proceeding, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to:

(A) domestic violence;

(B) protective orders;

(C) termination of parental rights; and

(D) adoptions;

and, if so, identify the court, the case number, and the nature of the proceeding.

(3) Whether the party knows the names and addresses of a person not a party to the proceeding who:

(A) has physical custody of the child; or

(B) claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, or visitation with, the child;

and, if so, the names and addresses of the persons.

(c) If the information required by subsection (a) is not furnished, the court, on motion of a party or its own motion, may stay the proceeding until the information is furnished.

Sec. 11. If the declaration as to any of the items described in section 10(b)(1) through 10(b)(3) of this chapter is in the affirmative, the party shall give additional information under oath as required by the court. The court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and other matters pertinent to:

(1) the court's jurisdiction; and

(2) the disposition of the case.

Sec. 12. Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of a proceeding in Indiana or any other state that may affect the current proceeding.

Sec. 13. If a party alleges in an affidavit or a pleading under oath that the health, safety, or liberty of a party or child would be jeopardized by disclosure of identifying information, the information must be sealed and may not be disclosed to the other party or the public unless the court orders the disclosure to be made after a hearing in which the court:

p
y

(1) takes into consideration the health, safety, or liberty of the party or child; and

(2) determines that the disclosure is in the interest of justice.

Sec. 14. (a) In a child custody proceeding in Indiana, the court may order a party to the proceeding who is in Indiana to appear before the court in person with or without the child. The court may order any person who:

(1) is in Indiana; and

(2) has physical custody or control of the child; to appear in person with the child.

(b) If a party to a child custody proceeding whose presence is desired by the court is outside Indiana, the court may order that a notice given under IC 31-21-3-3 include a statement:

(1) directing the party to appear in person with or without the child; and

(2) informing the party that failure to appear may result in a decision adverse to the party.

(c) The court may enter an order necessary to ensure the safety of:

(1) the child; and

(2) any person ordered to appear under this section.

(d) If a party to a child custody proceeding who is outside Indiana:

(1) is directed to appear under subsection (b); or

(2) desires to appear personally before the court with or without the child;

the court may require another party to pay reasonable and necessary travel and other expenses of the party who appears and of the child.

Chapter 6. Enforcement

Sec. 1. Under this chapter, an Indiana court may enforce an order for the return of the child made under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction as if it were a child custody determination.

Sec. 2. (a) An Indiana court shall recognize and enforce a child custody determination of a court of another state if the court of another state exercised jurisdiction in substantial conformity with this article or the determination:

(1) was made under factual circumstances meeting the jurisdictional standards of this article; and

(2) has not been modified in accordance with this article.

(b) An Indiana court may use a remedy available under any

p

other Indiana law to enforce a child custody determination made by a court of another state. The remedies provided in this article:

- (1) are cumulative; and
- (2) do not affect the availability of other remedies to enforce a child custody determination.

Sec. 3. (a) An Indiana court that does not have jurisdiction to modify a child custody determination may issue a temporary order enforcing:

- (1) a visitation schedule made by a court of another state; or
- (2) the visitation provisions of a child custody determination of another state that does not provide for a specific visitation schedule.

(b) If an Indiana court makes an order under subsection (a)(2), the Indiana court shall specify in the order a period that it considers adequate to allow the petitioner to obtain an order from a court having jurisdiction under the criteria specified in IC 31-21-5. The order remains in effect until:

- (1) an order is obtained from the court having jurisdiction; or
- (2) the period expires.

Sec. 4. (a) A child custody determination issued by a court of another state may be registered in Indiana, with or without a simultaneous request for enforcement, by sending the following to the appropriate Indiana court:

- (1) A letter or other document requesting registration.
- (2) Two (2) copies, including one (1) certified copy, of the determination sought to be registered and a statement under penalty of perjury that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person seeking registration the order has not been modified.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in section 13 of this chapter:
 - (A) the name and address of the person seeking registration; and
 - (B) the name of a parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded custody or visitation in the child custody determination sought to be registered.

(b) On receipt of the documents required by subsection (a), the registering court shall:

- (1) cause the determination to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one (1) copy of the accompanying documents and information, regardless of their form; and
- (2) serve notice on each person named under subsection (a)(3) and provide the person with an opportunity to contest the

1 registration in accordance with this section.

2 (c) The notice required by subsection (b)(2) must state the 3 following:

4 (1) A registered determination is enforceable as of the date of 5 the registration in the same manner as a child custody
6 determination issued by an Indiana court.

7 (2) A hearing to contest the validity of the registered
8 determination must be requested not more than twenty (20) 9 days after service of notice.

10 (3) Failure to contest the registration shall:

11 (A) result in confirmation of the child custody
12 determination; and

13 (B) preclude further contest of that determination with 14 respect to a matter that may have otherwise been asserted.

15 Sec. 5. (a) A person seeking to contest the validity of a registered 16 order must request a hearing not more than twenty (20) days after 17 service of the notice. At the hearing, the court shall confirm the 18 registered order unless the person contesting the registration 19 establishes that:

20 (1) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under
21 IC 31-21-5;

22 (2) the child custody determination sought to be registered has 23 been:

24 (A) vacated;

25 (B) stayed; or

26 (C) modified;

27 by a court having jurisdiction to do so under IC 31-21-5; or

28 (3) the person contesting registration was entitled to notice, 29 but notice was not given in accordance with the standards of 30 IC 31-21-3-3 in the proceedings before the court that issued 31 the order for which registration is sought.

32 (b) If a timely request for a hearing to contest the validity of the 33 registration is not made:

34 (1) the registration is confirmed as a matter of law; and

35 (2) the person requesting registration and each person served 36 must be notified of the confirmation.

37 (c) Confirmation of a registered order whether:

38 (1) by operation of law; or

39 (2) after notice and hearing;

40 precludes further contest of the order with respect to a matter that 41 may have been asserted at the time of registration.

42 Sec. 6. (a) An Indiana court may grant a relief normally

1 available under Indiana law to enforce a registered child custody
2 determination made by a court of another state.

3 (b) An Indiana court shall recognize and enforce, but may not
4 modify, except in accordance with IC 31-21-5, a registered child
5 custody determination of a court of another state.

6 Sec. 7. If a proceeding for enforcement under this article is 7 commenced in an Indiana court and the court determines that a 8 proceeding to modify the determination is pending in a court of 9 another state having jurisdiction to modify the determination
10 under IC 31-21-5, the enforcing court shall immediately 11 communicate with the modifying court. The proceeding for 12 enforcement continues unless the enforcing court, after 13 consultation with the modifying court, stays or dismisses the 14 proceeding.

15 Sec. 8. (a) A petition under this article must be verified.
16 Certified copies of:

17 (1) the orders sought to be enforced; and

18 (2) an order confirming registration;

19 must be attached to the petition. A copy of a certified copy of an 20 order may be attached instead of the original.

21 (b) A petition for enforcement of a child custody determination 22 must state the following:

23 (1) Whether the court that issued the determination identified
24 the jurisdictional basis it relied on in exercising jurisdiction 25 and, if so, what the basis was.

26 (2) Whether the determination for which enforcement is 27 sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court whose 28 decision must be enforced under this article and, if so, 29 identify:

30 (A) the court;

31 (B) the case number; and

32 (C) the nature of the proceeding.

33 (3) Whether a proceeding has been commenced that may 34 affect the current proceeding, including proceedings relating 35 to:

36 (A) domestic violence;

37 (B) protective orders;

38 (C) termination of parental rights; and

39 (D) adoptions;

40 and, if so, identify the court, the case number, and the nature
41 of the proceeding.

42 (4) The present physical address of the child and the respondent, if known.

(5) Whether relief in addition to the immediate physical custody of the child and attorney's fees is sought, including a request for assistance from law enforcement officials and, if so, the relief sought.

(6) If the child custody determination has been registered and confirmed under sections 4 and 5 of this chapter, the date and place of registration.

Sec. 9. (a) On the filing of a petition, the court:

(1) shall issue an order directing the respondent to appear in person with or without the child at a hearing; and

(2) may enter an order necessary to ensure the safety of the parties and the child.

The hearing must be held on the next judicial day after service of the order unless holding the hearing on that date is impossible. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible. The court may extend the date of hearing at the request of the petitioner.

(b) An order issued under subsection (a) must state the time and place of the hearing and advise the respondent that at the hearing the court will order that the petitioner may take immediate physical custody of the child and the payment of fees, costs, and expenses under section 15 of this chapter and may schedule a hearing to determine whether further relief is appropriate unless the respondent appears and establishes that:

(1) the child custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under sections 4 and 5 of this chapter and that:

(A) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under IC 31-21-5;

(B) the child custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court having jurisdiction under IC 31-21-5; or

(C) the respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the standards of IC 31-21-3-3 in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which enforcement is sought; or

(2) the child custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered and confirmed under sections 4 and 5 of this chapter but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction under IC 31-21-5.

Sec. 10. Except as otherwise provided in section 13 or 14 of this chapter, the petition and order must be served, by a method

o
p
y

1 authorized by Indiana law, on the respondent and any person who
2 has physical custody of the child.

3 Sec. 11. Unless the court issues a temporary emergency order
4 under IC 31-21-5-4 on a finding that a petitioner is entitled to 5 immediate physical custody of the child, the court shall order that 6 the petitioner may take immediate physical custody of the child
7 unless the respondent establishes that:

8 (1) the child custody determination has not been registered 9 and confirmed under sections 4 and 5 of this chapter and that:

10 (A) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under
11 IC 31-21-5;

12 (B) the child custody determination for which enforcement
13 is sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court
14 of a state having jurisdiction to do so under IC 31-21-5; or 15 (C) the respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was 16 not given in accordance with the standards of IC 31-21-3-3

17 in the proceedings before the court that issued the order
18 for which enforcement is sought; or

19 (2) the child custody determination for which enforcement is 20 sought was registered and confirmed under sections 4 and 5
21 of this chapter but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a 22 court of a state having jurisdiction under IC 31-21-5.

23 Sec. 12. (a) The court:

24 (1) shall award the fees, costs, and expenses authorized under 25 section 15 of this chapter; and 26 (2) may grant additional relief, including a request for the 27 assistance of law enforcement officials, and set a hearing to 28 determine whether additional relief is appropriate.

29 (b) If a party called to testify refuses to answer on the ground
30 that the testimony may be self-incriminating, the court may draw 31 an adverse inference from the refusal.

32 (c) A privilege against disclosure of communications between 33 spouses and a defense of immunity based on the relationship of 34 husband and wife or parent and child may not be invoked in a 35 proceeding under this chapter.

36 Sec. 13. (a) On the filing of a petition seeking enforcement of a 37 child custody determination, the petitioner may file a verified
38 application for the issuance of a warrant to take physical custody 39 of the child if the child is immediately likely to:

40 (1) suffer serious physical harm; or

41 (2) be removed from Indiana.

42 (b) If the court, on the testimony of the petitioner or other

o
y

witness, finds that the child is imminently likely to suffer serious physical harm or be removed from Indiana, the court may issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child. The petition must be heard on the next judicial day after the warrant is executed unless hearing the petition on that date is impossible. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible. The application for the warrant must include the statements required by section 8(b) of this chapter.

Sec. 14. (a) A warrant to take physical custody of a child must:

(1) recite the facts on which a conclusion of imminent serious physical harm or removal from the jurisdiction is based;

(2) direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately; and

(3) provide for the placement of the child pending final relief.

(b) The respondent must be served with the petition, warrant, and order immediately after the child is taken into physical custody.

(c) A warrant to take physical custody of a child is enforceable throughout Indiana. If the court finds on the basis of the testimony of the petitioner or other witness that a less intrusive remedy is not effective, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to enter private property to take physical custody of the child. If required by exigent circumstances of the case, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

(d) The court may impose conditions on the placement of a child to ensure the appearance of the child and the child's custodian.

Sec. 15. (a) The court shall award the prevailing party, including a state, necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by or on behalf of the party, including:

(1) costs;

(2) communication expenses;

(3) attorney's fees;

(4) investigative fees;

(5) expenses for witnesses;

(6) travel expenses; and

(7) child care during the course of the proceedings;

unless the party from whom fees or expenses are sought establishes that the award would be clearly inappropriate.

(b) The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against a state unless authorized by law other than this article.

Sec. 16. An Indiana court shall accord full faith and credit to an order issued by another state and consistent with this article that

o
p
y

enforces a child custody determination by a court of another state unless the order has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court having jurisdiction under IC 31-21-5.

Sec. 17. An appeal may be taken from a final order in a proceeding under this article in accordance with expedited appellate procedures in other civil cases. Unless the court enters a temporary emergency order under IC 31-21-5-4, the enforcing court may not stay an order enforcing a child custody determination pending appeal.

Sec. 18. (a) In a case arising under this article or involving the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, a prosecuting attorney or other appropriate public official may take a lawful action, including resorting to a proceeding under this article or any other available civil proceeding, to locate a child, obtain the return of a child, or enforce a child custody determination if there is:

- (1) an existing child custody determination;
- (2) a request to do so from a court in a pending child custody proceeding;
- (3) a reasonable belief that a criminal statute has been violated; or
- (4) a reasonable belief that the child has been wrongfully removed or retained in violation of the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

(b) A prosecuting attorney or other appropriate public official acting under this section acts on behalf of the court and may not represent a party.

Sec. 19. At the request of a prosecuting attorney or other appropriate public official acting under section 18 of this chapter, a law enforcement officer may:

- (1) take a lawful action reasonably necessary to locate a child or a party; and
- (2) assist a prosecuting attorney or appropriate public official with responsibilities under section 18 of this chapter.

Sec. 20. If the respondent is not the prevailing party, the court may assess against the respondent the direct expenses and costs incurred by the prosecuting attorney or other appropriate public official and law enforcement officers under section 18 or 19 of this chapter.
